

ALAN MYERS, A.C.A.
CFO, Tangco Gold Inc.

Alan is a UK Chartered Accountant with over 30 years of professional and business experience. He started his career with Ernst and Young in Manchester, England followed by two years with Price Waterhouse in Toronto, Canada. From there, Alan moved into industry where he served as Controller at Wang Canada, the Canadian subsidiary of a major U.S. computer manufacturer, Chief Financial Officer at Hudson Bay Diecasting, a Toronto-based public company in the auto parts industry, and Chief Financial Officer/Acting General Manager at E-Connect, an innovative broadband services provider which was bought out by AT&T. Since then, Alan has been operating his own successful consulting practice providing clients with financial services including assistance with raising venture capital, tax consulting including recovery of research and development tax credits, financial systems implementation, and accounting. Alan is currently the CFO of Tangco Gold Inc., an Ontario-based precious metals exploration and development company.